

Content Assistant (m/f/d) Part-Time/Working Student in Marketing at solebox solebox is one of the most renowned sneaker and fashion boutiques in the world, representing an exclusive brand portfolio. At solebox, we work in the fast-paced sneaker and streetwear industry. Being part of the marketing team offers not only the chance to gain valuable knowledge but also unique insights into the marketing field as well as the sneaker and fashion market as a whole.

We are currently looking for a creative Content Assistant (m/f/d) on a part-time basis (20–30 hours/week) or as a working student (m/f/d) (20 hours/week) to support our marketing team at our headquarters in Cologne.

Your responsibilities:

- Support in the photo studio: Preparing and organizing samples, props, and models for shoots, and assisting photographers on set
- Content Creation & Social Media: Developing creative content for TikTok in collaboration with our Social Media Manager, supporting Pinterest contributions, and coordinating between the content and social media teams
- Organization & Creativity: Assisting with the planning and coordination of shoots, and researching current trends and content ideas

Your profile:

- Currently enrolled student in Marketing, Communication, Media, or Design
- Initial experience in content creation and social media
- Creativity, organizational skills, and a strong sense for trends

What we offer:

- A creative working environment with room for your own ideas
- Flexible working hours and the possibility of remote work

Interested?

We look forward to receiving your compelling application documents, including your salary expectations and earliest possible start date. Take your chance and become part of our team.
